SIMPLE TIPS FOR

SAFELY WALKING AT NIGHT

Whether it is the length of our work days or an attempt to beat the heat, many of us are hitting the road for a walk or run near dusk or even in the dark.

A little preparation will ensure that we all stay safe and healthy.

Wear reflective gear

Dark fitness gear may be fashionable but it makes you hard to see. Toss on a reflective vest, belt, or straps to make sure drivers can see you.

Light the way

To combat those dark corners and streets, wear a head lamp or carry a flashlight to mark your route.

Bring a friend

Friends can keep us company, are great motivators, and groups of pedestrians are easier for vehicles to spot. Friends are the best!

Be Weather Aware

This is chinook country which means we have to be prepared for wild weather changes. Don't like the weather? Wait five minutes.

Watch for vehicles

Keep your eyes open for cars. It is up to you to make sure you are safe. Just assume the driver is distracted and protect yourself accordingly.

Happy Canada Day!

Enjoy your July 1st celebrations
